

Workshop on Nuclear-Environmental Engineering and Science Education Planned Sessions

Sessions will take place on the Vanderbilt University Campus in Featheringill Hall located at 400 24th Ave S., Nashville, TN 37203

WEDNESDAY, JULY 31 - Opening Reception 5pm – 7pm

THURSDAY, AUGUST 1 8am – 5pm

MORNING SESSION

- How Should Educators Meet the Needs of Governmental and Industrial Partners?
- Socio-Technical Knowledge and Skills Needed to Support the Nuclear-Environmental Industry
- Group Activity: Part I – Review Results of Pre-screening Survey: Assessing Socio-Technical Knowledge and Skills

Lunch Provided

AFTERNOON SESSION

- Group Activity: Part I Continued – Discuss Results of Pre-screening Survey: Assessing Socio-Technical Knowledge and Skills
- Group Activity: Part II – Take New Survey Based on Group Discussion
- Group Activity: Part III – Review and Discuss Revised Survey Results: Assessing Socio-Technical Knowledge and Skills

Dinner – 6:00 PM All Workshop attendees

FRIDAY, AUGUST 2 8am – 4pm

MORNING SESSION

- How to Engage and Attract Students to the Nuclear-Environmental Field of Study
- Technical Knowledge and Skills Needed to Support the Nuclear-Environmental Industry
- Group Activity: Part I – Review Results of Pre-screening Survey: Assessing Technical Knowledge and Skills

Lunch Provided

AFTERNOON SESSION

- Group Activity: Part I Continued – Discuss Results of Pre-screening Survey: Assessing Technical Knowledge and Skills
- Group Activity: Part II – Take New Survey Based on Group Discussion
- Group Activity: Part III – Review and Discuss Revised Survey Results: Assessing Technical Knowledge and Skills

Wrap up 3:45PM